JVJ worked all day on entering his survey-results! Good to do before leaving tomorrow. While he was working away on the computer - JSH, HAN and MEL went to Kalmar for some big midsummer shopping as well as HAN buying himself a nice car.

A solid hour was spent in Willys before JSH and MEL went to Biltema to eat some well-deserved Biltemakörv! The next stop was the one and only Systembolaget and after that we made our way down to Ventlinge for fresh eggs and strawberries. In the morning SSL came back, this time with TLN who will be joining the midsummer celebrations!
